For the safety of yourself and others, read this owner's manual in its entirety before handling your shotgun. If there is any part of this manual that you do not understand, seek professional instruction from a licensed gun dealer.

Always keep this manual with this shotgun. If you give or sell this shotgun to another person, make sure this manual goes with the shotgun, along with the lock enclosed with your shotgun.

All Iver Johnson firearms come with a gun lock when shipped from the factory. Make sure to use this lock any time the shotgun is not in use. Instructions on how to use the lock correctly are enclosed with the lock.

Never use any type of reloaded ammunition with this shotgun. The use of reloaded or hand-loaded ammunition is dangerous and will void the warranty.
